20+ years experience restoring old & historic homes

We have been working on the homes of the Eastside and near-North Side for over 20 years now, specializing in restoring wood siding, fixing original details, rebuilding porches and returning homes to their long-lost splendor.

We fell in love with the old homes of the area and their often-neglected details and connective tissue and decided to make this demanding sort of restoration our specialty!

More About Us

Knowledge

Fully trained, ambitious professionals with an understanding of the unique approaches necessary to take for each project.

Our Mission

To help maintain the historic housing of the city and its suburbs by providing comprehensive exterior restoration services.

Quality Completion

Too often contractors will complete only a portion of the project properly. We have the experience and knowledge to do the whole job affordably.
